“ I just found this obit on a hunch, as I hadn't heard from Tim in a few years.

I knew him through the SCA, a medieval reenactment group with a local chapter based up here in Bowling Green. Tim had a wry, dry wit that I've been missing for some time now. He was also one who could and would set up a joke days or weeks in advance just for the groans he could elicit.

He was a good pal back when we attended various SCA events - always in good humor, always quick with a smile and a bad joke to keep you grinning.

I'm so sorry to hear he's gone, he was a straight-up fella with a lot of ideas - the world is a lesser place for knowing he's no longer in it.

“ Tom was one of the finest men I served with aboard the Nimitz. A buddy who would give you whatever you need. Especially funny and he expanded my horizons. Exposed me to Def Leppard, Kliban and many, many things. I regret many things in this life, but because of Tim and my other shipmates, my time in the Navy was not one of the them. Rest easy, we have the watch.

“ So sorry to hear of Tim’s passing. He was a Shipmate of mine while stationed on the USS Nimitz. I have many fond memories of Tim while we served together. He was a funny and jovial person who liked to make people laugh.

“ Always enjoyed talking with Tim. His dry droll sense of humor was so much fun. Reminded me of my Uncle Pete.

I cant believe you're gone, you were one of the highlights of my Navy Daze. If i knew the last time I would see you was in that furniture store parking lot, I would have tried to stay longer. I pray for your family and for myself, that I learn from the fact that I did not get to spend more time with you. Fair winds and following seas Shipmate. Until we meet again. Never give a gun to ducks.....
