“ There are so many memories I have of Todd, my youngest brother. Walking down the hill to get to the beach every moment we could, playing together during the many baseball games at the little league park, going to the movies every Saturday afternoon, riding bikes at the high school just up the street, and then watching him grow up to become a loving husband, dad and grandpa. He was so proud of his wife and family. He enjoyed getting together with his extended family and it was a joy for us to see him each time. Rest in peace little brother. We will miss you. Love Melissa and Bill

“ I was very proud of Todd as I drove him to the military depot as he embarked on his Air Force stint, shortly after the early death of our father. I knew Todd was determined to set his own course. He met and married a wonderful woman in the Air Force and they set about starting a family. Todd was all about family, he loved his wife dearly, proud of his daughters and he doted on his grandchildren. He never missed an important event in his extended family celebration's milestones. It was all about family despite the medical issues that started with his first kidney transplant 26 years ago. It is well known, the health challenges he has endured over the years would have wilted the average person. He was a man of true grit and fortitude, who never once complained about the cards he was dealt. I wish more people had his strength and character. Sarah and I will miss him dearly as he has left a hole in my heart. Love Bob and Sarah
