“ Getta was such a brilliant light! When her son, Ken, and I were suffering through a rough hurricane year in 2004, she opened her doors to let us stay in her home until our power came back on weeks later. She was the most generous, nurturing, patient, and caring person I have ever met. Rest in peace, Dearest Getta.

“ Many of us will greatly miss Getta. Her warm smile and welcoming conversation always made me feel comfortable anywhere we might run into each other. She was a good Christian model and I feel privileged to have known her.
