“ Went to a professional motor cross race with Vernon at Honda Hills race track in the 70's. It was the first and only professional bike race I have ever attended. We also rode motorcycles together on several trips around Ohio. He shared with me his favorite routes and special roads to ride on. I still ride these same routes today. My brother Bill and our cousins also have enjoyed these same routes. Even though they discovered them on their own. Even though we were not raised by Vernon we all shared a love of riding the open roads. We reconnected late in life after his wife died and he remained in the nursing home. He came to know our lord and savior Jesus Christ. So we know he was forgiven even though he found it hard to forgive himself .
