“ Aunt Virginia was a quiet, sweet spirit and godly woman. I will always fondly remember the times that we stayed at her home when we visited. My dad, Fred Lemon was her brother. Aunt Virginia's family lived on a farm and was very welcoming. I recall feeding the chickens, visiting the barn, feeding baby lambs with a bottle and drinking fresh milk from a pail in the kitchen, sitting around the kitchen table with the family for meals, and listening to Uncle Ford talk about the Bible. My faith was sparked during that time. I look forward to seeing you in heaven one day, Aunt Virginia.
