“ To many memories and times growing up to list. Ginny as I always knew her as a young kid 60+ years ago was very active and into sports. We lived as neighbors from the time of being in grade school until she married. Spent many nights spending the night at each others home. She is the youngest and the last of siblings. May she be at peace.

“ I remember Ginny's laugh and her strength. Ginny was that rare person who mixed honesty with tenderness. The world is poorer today with the loss of this very authentic woman.
